

SBOCA Roll of Honour inductee 2012

Brother Finian Allman (Headmaster 1953–1958) for his outstanding contribution to Catholic education, youth and St Bede's over many decades. Commenced teaching in 1941 and first came to St Bede's in 1943. Completed a Bachelor of Arts part-time while busy with full-time teaching duties and a wide range of activities. Headmaster of St Bede's for six years from 1953. Teacher again at St Bede's in 1969. Studied overseas and appointments at De La Salle Malvern, Director of Novices, Headmaster at De La Salle Kingsgrove. Br Finian returned in 1972 as a French, Latin and English teacher and has been continuously at the College ever since. After retiring from full-time teaching, Br Finian continued taking some French classes and became more involved in the Old Collegians' Association, taking the role as President for many years. We congratulate Br Finian for his life time dedication to St Bede's and being the inaugural member of the Old Collegians' Roll of Honour.
