

VCE PARENTAL NOTIFICATION OF A PROVISIONAL "N"

In each Unit at VCE your son completes a sequence of internally assessed pieces of work called SACs or SATs (School Assessed Coursework/Tasks) and for these he receives a score/percentage. The overall assessment of each Unit is measured on whether the "Outcome" (key learning/skills) has been demonstrated by the student – this is reported as either "Satisfactory" (S) or "Not Satisfactory" (N) by the subject teacher. One criterion which needs to be met in order to successfully complete VCE is the attainment of at least 16 Units over Years 11 and 12; a second criterion is attendance – if attendance is below expectations without reasonable evidence explaining the absence (such as medical certificates) then an "N" will be awarded regardless.

In the VCE Unit named above, your son's current performance level indicates that an "N" will be awarded – at this moment it is a Provisional "N". The award of an "N" would mean the following:

1. Your son has not demonstrated a satisfactory understanding of the Outcome/s for the Unit.
2. Your son would not be able to count this Unit towards his VCE.

Your son has the impending “N” for the following specific reason/s:

In order to not receive an “N” for this Unit, your son is required to:

PLEASE NOTE: Meeting this requirement will not change the original SAC mark that your son received.
